Do you feel comfortable seeking help/asking questions of your TA outside of recitation?	(1)	2	3	4	5

What do you feel your TA does well?

Andrew is well prepared and always gives good examples on the board. He also spends a lot of time showing the conceptual aspects of the class.

What are some ways in which your TA could improve the learning experience for the recitation section?

Although it's difficult in this classroom, he could be a little more organized on the board. I also think that I would get more out of the recitation if we went over material learned this week, rather than the material from the previous week.

PLEASE take a few minutes to make any additional comments that might be helpful in evaluating your TA. Please write your comments below (you may use the back of this sheet if you need more room).

I'm in the Thursday recitation and it's a very quiet class. I think if Andrew worked a little faster and skipped some steps on the board, students would have to be more engaged.

Do you feel comfortable seeking help/asking questions of your TA outside of recitation?	1	2	3	4	5

There is a clear outline/goal of topics to be covered during recitation from the prior week. Questions are answered, questions are asked by him, and examples are put to exhibit methods of resolution for any given problem.

What are some ways in which your TA could improve the learning experience for the recitation section?

In some ways the schedule you have for the recitation doesn't seem to allow for many questions regarding the homework of that week. If there were any spare moments in the class it would be nice if we could ask questions.

PLEASE take a few minutes to make any additional comments that might be helpful in evaluating your TA. Please write your comments below (you may use the back of this sheet if you need more room).

This isn't going to be helpful to you, but I just want to write, "thank you" in words for being an effective and accommodating TA. I enjoy coming to this recitation barring the dreaded quizzes.
